America's Most Wanted Featuring Case From Beaverton Police Department

On Friday September 14, 2012 America's Most Wanted will feature a case from the Beaverton Police Department. The case being featured involves a violent assault and attempted murder that occurred on April 2, 2012 at 8:35 a.m.

On April 2, 2012 Mauricio Beltran-Trejo 35 years of age, forced his way into his ex-girlfriend's apartment. Once in the apartment Beltran-Trejo strangled his ex-girlfriend Crystal Gomez and then sexually assaulted her. It is believed that Beltran-Trejo thought he had killed Gomez when he strangled her. Gomez was able to escape her apartment while Beltran-Trejo was in another room and call police. Beltran-Trejo fled the scene of the attack and is still at large. There is a felony warrant for the arrest of Beltran-Trejo.

America's Most Wanted will air at 9:00 p.m. on Lifetime and can be found on cable or satellite.

The Beaverton Police Department is asking for the communities help in locating Beltran-Trejo and have him brought to justice for this horrific attack.
